WEEKLY BULLETIN

OCTOBER 13, 2024

The Lord bless you and keep you.
The Lord make his face shine on you and be gracious to you. The Lord look upon you with favor and give you peace. ✝

AN OPEN DOOR TO LIFE

The rich man who comes to ask Jesus what he should do to inherit eternal life is a good man, sincere in his asking. Mark's gospel is alone in saying that Jesus looked on him and loved him. Out of love, not as judgment, Jesus offers him an open door to life: sell all you own and give it to the poor. Our culture bombards us with the message that we will find life by consuming. Our assemblies counter this message with the invitation to find life by divesting for the sake of the other.

CLC IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD FOR GOOD

From the Desk of Pastor Tricia

Our Clothing the Community Day was a huge success! We had 30 volunteers coming and going throughout the day. Thank you to everyone who sorted clothes leading up to the event, set up, helped people in the community and cleaned up. All of those hands made the work much lighter. Members of the community were so appreciative to get clothes, shoes, coats and gloves. I was thanked numerous times and had a few folks say they couldn't believe it was all free. It was also nice to have volunteers from my husband Tony's church, Trinity Lutheran Church in Gibsonia. We hope to collaborate with them for other events. It was a wonderful day of caring for others, fellowship and showing the community we are "In the Neighborhood for Good".

On Sunday, there were 20 pets and 30 humans that came for our blessing of the pets. We were outside on a particularly sunny October day with dogs, cats and a bearded dragon. It was a nice event, and each animal received a treat bag as they left.

I look forward to more community events in the future as we let the community know we are welcoming, alive and doing God's work.

Blessings to you all,
Pastor Tricia

Upcoming Commemorations

Teresa of Avila, teacher, renewer of the church, died 1582

Tuesday, October 15, 2024

A mystical writer and reformer of the monastic order (Carmelites) to which she belonged, Teresa may also be commemorated with John of the Cross on December 14. Latino Christians traditionally remember her on this date.

Ignatius, Bishop of Antioch, martyr, died around 115

Thursday, October 17, 2024

Ignatius was the second bishop of Antioch in Syria, the city where the name "Christians" originated. Ignatius is known to us from his letters, which encouraged Christians to live in love, yet stand firm in true doctrine.

Luke, Evangelist

Friday, October 18, 2024

Identified as the author of both Luke and Acts, Luke was careful to place the events of Jesus' life in their social and religious contexts. His gospel gives us some of the most beloved parables, as well as the songs of Zechariah, Mary, the angels, and Simeon.
