WEEKLY BULLETIN

OCTOBER 20, 2024

The Lord bless you and keep you.
The Lord make his face shine on you and be gracious to you. The Lord look upon you with favor and give you peace. ✝

THE SON OF MAN CAME NOT TO BE SERVED BUT TO SERVE AND GIVE HIS LIFE

Today's gospel starts with disciples obsessing over who will be closest to Jesus, leading to Jesus teaching his followers about God's take on importance and power. Here Jesus makes it explicit that the reversal of values in God's community is a direct challenge to the values of the dominant culture, where wielding power over others is what makes you great. When we pray "your kingdom come" we are praying for an end to tyranny and oppression. We pray this gathered around the cross, a sign of great shame transformed to be the sign of great honor and service.

CLC IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD FOR GOOD

From the Desk of Pastor Tricia

Our Clothing the Community Day was a huge success! We had 30 volunteers coming and going throughout the day. Thank you to everyone who sorted clothes leading up to the event, set up, helped people in the community and cleaned up. All of those hands made the work much lighter. Members of the community were so appreciative to get clothes, shoes, coats and gloves. I was thanked numerous times and had a few folks say they couldn't believe it was all free. It was also nice to have volunteers from my husband Tony's church, Trinity Lutheran Church in Gibsonsia. We hope to collaborate with them for other events. It was a wonderful day of caring for others, fellowship and showing the community we are "In the Neighborhood for Good".

On Sunday, there were 20 pets and 30 humans that came for our blessing of the pets. We were outside on a particularly sunny October day with dogs, cats and a bearded dragon. It was a nice event, and each animal received a treat bag as they left.

I look forward to more community events in the future as we let the community know we are welcoming, alive and doing God's work.

Blessings to you all,
Pastor Tricia

Upcoming Commemorations

James of Jerusalem, martyr, died around 62 Wednesday, October 23, 2024

One of three early-church leaders named James, this man is identified in the New Testament and by a historian of the time as a brother of Jesus. Scholars are uncertain whether this means a blood brother. He was a leader of the church in Jerusalem.

Philipp Nicolai, died 1608; Johann Heermann, died 1647; Paul Gerhardt, died 1676; hymnwriters Saturday, October 26, 2024

These great hymnwriters all worked in seventeenth-century Germany in times of war and plague. Nicolai, a pastor, lost 1,300 parishioners to plague, 170 in one week. He wrote "O Morning Star, how fair and bright" and "Wake, awake, for night is flying." Heermann's hymns, including "Ah, holy Jesus," often express the emotions of faith. Gerhardt, perhaps the greatest Lutheran hymnwriter, was a pastor in Berlin. (Portraits in order: Paul Gerhardt, Johann Heermann, Philipp Nicolai)

In case of emergency....

Did you know we have an emergency defibrillator? It's on the wall, near the office and food pantry check-in table.

Did you know we have Narcan available? With the first aid kits in the narthex and in the office too!
